

How To Post On Facebook

Posting Before & After Your Box Arrives + Using PMs to Grow Your Business

The intention of your post is to be authentically enthusiastic about why you've decided to get started on your journey with Isagenix and you're simply sharing your excitement with your Facebook network. You want to generate a natural level of curiosity amongst your friends who will want to learn more about what you're doing.

Posting On FB – Before Your Box Arrives (7:00pm is a GREAT time to post)

After watching my friend (Include and tag your enrolling sponsor's name) release/experience/have _____, _____, and _____ in just ___ days, using an amazing Superfood Nutritional Cleansing system, I decided it was time for me to experience similar results, because I was tired of feeling _____, _____, and _____. I'm so excited to get started and to get my body back. My system hasn't even arrived yet and I'd love to have some of my good friends join me on this journey so we can hold each other accountable and get the healthiest we've ever been together. Who's up for looking and feeling their best?

Sending Private Messages – Before Your Box Arrives (Anytime is GREAT)

Name of your prospect, Maybe you saw my post about the nutritional cleansing system I am about to begin. I wanted to reach out to you personally, Name of your prospect, because I'm super excited about, not only about the products, but I'm considering/looking into/extremely excited to pursue the business side. I thought of you because this needs to come from the heart and should include your reason "Why?" (If you would like more information on how to discover your "Why?" then watch this video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gDT7GOzjUf0>) Name of your prospect, I have no idea if this would be something you'd have an interest in, but I'd love to schedule a time when I can call you to give you a brief overview of what I'm doing and why. The more people that know what I'm doing the better and even if it's not a fit for you, you may know JUST the person looking I'm looking for. Would you be open to that? (Let them answer.)

If yes: Well name of your prospect I can't tell you how much I appreciate that. So all I need is about 15 minutes where you can be in front of your computer...and then based upon our conversation we can determine your level of interest, if any. I have ___ and ___ open. What works best for you?

During The First 30-Days – After You Begin To Experience Results

Before I found this system, I was feeling _____, _____ and _____ and I'd had enough. After watching tons of my friends get results, I finally decided to get started on an amazing Superfood Nutritional Cleansing system and I can't believe what's happened! I've only been on the system for _____ days and I've already experienced/have released _____, _____ and _____! I'd tried so many things before this and I'm just so grateful to my friend (Include and tag your enrolling sponsor's name) for introducing this to me. It's super simple to follow and everything tastes amazing! Finally, a solution that actually works!!!

When Your Friends Start Commenting

Congratulations! You've now experienced the benefits of using Facebook and have people interested in what you have to offer. So, what do you do next? Follow this simple and proven formula:

First things first: When people comment on your posts it is usually to ask, "What is it?" Never use the word "Isagenix" in your reply. Why? We don't want your contacts to Google the word "Isagenix" only to end up signing up on someone else's website. Reply with something like this: It's amazing @name, I'll send you a PM (Private Message) with more information. Here's what that PM should look like:

Hey name of your prospect, it's awesome you want to join me in doing this. I'm committed to releasing/experiencing, etc. _____ in the next 30 days. What are you looking to achieve?

After they respond via a PM, continue with something like this: I've definitely heard lots of stories of people who have done exactly that using the system.

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: Great, I can't wait to learn more.

You continue the PM with something like this: Since I'm just getting started, let's do this... There's a brief 10 minute video which explains what this is all about; why I decided to get involved and why this system is so effective. If I sent you a link would you watch it?

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: Yes, of course.

Continue the PM with something like this: Great. In less time than it takes to watch tonight's news you can see what this is all about. When would you be able to watch? I ask because the next step after you've watched the video is to get on a call with my mentor/coach. You'll love them. They are edify, edify, edify and can really help get all your questions answered.

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: I can watch it when I get home from work tonight around 6pm.

Continue the PM with something like this: Great. So if mentor's/coach's name and I were to give you a call at 6:30pm you will have watched the video?

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: That should work.

Continue the PM with something like this: Okay, great. Let me just confirm that mentor's/coach's name is available at that time this evening. They're super busy so if that time won't work are there other times tonight that might work for you?

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: I'm pretty open, so just let me know what works.

Contact your mentor/coach via FB chat, text, or by phone, and ask them if they are available at that time. After you have confirmed the appointment with your mentor/coach continue the PM with something like this: Mentor's/coach's name confirmed 6:30pm will work. What's the best number to reach you?

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: 555-555-1234

Continue the PM with something like this: Okay, great. We'll call you then.

If that time will not work for your mentor/coach continue the PM with something like this: They can't do 6:30pm, but they can talk with you at 8:00pm. Will that work for you? If they are completely booked that night continue the PM with something like this: They can talk tomorrow morning or afternoon. What works best for you?

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: Afternoon.

Continue the PM with something like this: Okay, great. They are available at 1:00pm or 3:00pm. What works best for you?

They will probably continue the PM with something like this: 1:00pm works.

Continue the PM with something like this: Okay, great. When you get home and have about 15 minutes in front of your computer, go to ShareTheStoryNow.com. Watch that short 10 minute video and then click on the "More Information" tab and watch what interests you. Chat with you tomorrow at 1:00pm.

That's it! Do not continue the conversation beyond this point!
